DEATH OF A VENERABLE CITIZEN.-Colonel Jno. S. Ashe died yesterday morning, and will be buried to-day. Col. Ashe was for many years a prominent politician, and an impulsive but true and warmhearted Southern gentleman. He filled many positions of trust and importance, and was State Senator for several terms. He was identified with the State in the eventful history of the past, from the days or nullification to the last revolu

A TORGHTAGHT PROGESSION.—It is understood that the Republican party will gather their clans tonight, and will parade through the city in a torchlight procession. The transparencies will be covered with the names of the Republican nominess, they not being decirons of having their light hid under a

THE CIRCUS .- The great Brazilian hippodrome was opened on Saturday night. The feats of horsemanship performed by I owande, the bare-back--ed rider, were astounding, and formed one of the most interesting features of the entertainment. The troupe exhibits a wonderful degree of skill. As the stay of this circus is limited all should attend at RUNAWAY ACCIDENT .- On Saturday morning, as Mr. I. T. Potter, the newly appointed alderman, was returning in his buggy from the City Hall, after having duly qualified, his borse took fright and ran off along Meeting-street. At the corner of Wentworth-street Mr. Potter was thrown violently from his seat, and soon after the horse was secured. The new alderman, fortunately, sustained no more seri-...ous injury than some severe bruises.

"THE BANNER OF THE SOUTH," Father Ry. an's new weekly paper, improves with every issue, and bids fair to take a foremost place in popularity and circulation among the weekly papers of the South. Those who want a truly Southern paper cannot do better than subscribe. Captain James Armstrong, Jr., and Mr. Edward Lee are the Charleston Agents, and the Banner is for sale at Quinn's News

BOLD BURGLARY.—The paint store of Mr. A. S. Figures, No. 174 East Bay, was broken open on Saturday evening and thoroughly rummaged. The object of the robbers was evidently to secure money, but they obtained only some small change remaining in the till. They also took a coat and some other articles belonging to Mr. Freitas, but made no attemp to remove any of the stock, probably from the fear that it might result in their identification.

CONVICTED AT LAST .- T. C. Callicott, late an trial, was convicted on Thursday of conspiracy to defrand the United States Government of the tax on spirits. Some of our Charleston people have cause to remember this same Callicott, who figured extensively here just after the close of the war, as a gov ent cotton agent, and who showed himself a that time to be a precious ruscal and a profound adept in the game of grab. We wish him a good long term in Sing Sing.

June Besides being the month of greatest ner beauty, when nature robes the troes and fields with a rich garniture of leaves and flowers, June has long been considered by the superstitious as the most propitious month for centracting matrinial engagements. It is, in reality, what the poets am May to be: "The leafly month of June," as Coloridge describes it—the season of the year when all the beauties of Na'ure are displayed, and the truth of the assertion that "God made the country

THE COUNTY ELECTIONS .- The election for Sheriff, Clerk of Court, Probate Judge, Coroner, County and School Commissioner, will be held to-morrow. In some instances the nominees of the Radical party will meet with no opposition. Some o ces will, however, be strongly contested, and ch party has nerved itself for the conflict, it would be difficult to predict the result. This is especially the case with regard to the sheriff's berth, and all true citizens should remember to cast their votes for the candidate who represents the people, and is not the excopent of a party antagonistic to the

A New MOVEMENT.—The Charleston corres ient of the Baltimore Gazette says: "I have just heard of an important movement among the State politicians. It seems that, among others less promi ent, Generals Hampton, Chesnut, Kershaw McGowan, are about leaving the Democratic ranks to form a new and more strictly conservative party. which is to take a middle course in politics and there thy avoid the path of Southern extremists as well as that of Northern Radicals. This movement is a sort of endorsement of Gov. Orr's course, and, doubt less, with the aid of such names at its head, will com mand the support of many in this State."

CLOSING NIGHT OF THE FAIR .- - Saturday night saw Hibernian Hall again filled with a g.y throng. The auction took place and the bidding for the different articles was spirited.

Mr. R. S. Bruns conducted the suction and cleured the tables in a short time. The tableaux were also repeated, the scenes represented being "a pyram.d - of beauty," "a rustic scene" and "I dreamt that I dweit in marble halls." There was a general desire among the visitors that the Fair should be continued, but the "going, going, gone," and the fall of the the Fair has netted nearly $1000.

THE REMOVAL OF DISABILITIES .- The following letter was received by a citizen of Columbia, in reply to an application for the removal of disabilities; Senate Chamber, Washington Citx.

Dear Sir: I have your letter of the 19th, in reference to the removal of your political disabilities. I am not sure that the time has yet come to make exceptions to our general policy in individual cases; to do so, would be to open the door to innumerable applications; and once open, it would be difficult to shut it. I hope to meet such cases as yours by some general enactment; and as soon as the condition of the country will permit. I shall be the first to advocate the removal of all disabilities under which you labor at present.

OUR VEGETABLE FARMS .- A Charleston letter -to the Baltimore Gazette says: "Great upeasiness exists among the garden farmers around the city on account of the potato blight which is spreading in the field and threatening a heavy damage to the crops. The potato crop, which is highly profitable if brought to market just after the season of the Bermuda potatoes, is this year rather backward, owing to an unusually cold spring, and is in its present half matured condition peculiarly liable to injury from the blight. Other vegetables, however, although also somewhat backward, are doing well and give fine promise. Large profits are often made on these garden farms, and this style of planting is growing daily more popular."

A RACE IN PROSPECT.-It will be seen, by reference to our advertising columns, that Mr. Thomas Young, the owner of the Eleanor, has formally challenged Messrs. Marsh Bros., owners of the Ella Anna. The time and place of the race will be made known as soon as the challenge is accepted. In order to make the race more exciting, Mr. Young proposes to admit the Maggie Mitchell and a fine craft recently built by Mr. Jones. As these boats are much smaller, they will be allowed one-half minute to the mile, and will be required to put up a stake of fifty dollars, and twenty-five dollars forfeit. In case either of these smaller boats should win the race, they will receive but the two hundred dollars, the larger sum being contested for by the klennor and Ella Anna alone.

THE STEAMSHIP CHAMPION. - This commodious and superior steamer, in charge of Captain R. W Lockwood, left here for New York on Saturday last, where she will remain about six weeks, during which period she will have her machinery refitted, a new boiler placed in her, and her cabin, and the vessel generally, will receive a complete renovation for the fall trade. She had on board a large treight, among which were about three thousand pickages of vegetables. The Champion belongs to the line of which James Adger, Esq., is the agent here, and which arcomposed of the James Adger, Charleston, Manhattan and Champion. These vassels afford passengers and shippers every comfort and safety. Captain R. W. Lockwood, of the Champion, will continue in command, where we feel assured he wi'l increase his already well earned reputation.

AQUATIC Sports.—The pleasant weather of Saturday tempted many of those naufically incline). to risk their summer garments on the bosom of the doep. Sails were raised, the craft manned, and the harbor was dotted with pleasure boats scudding in every direction. Many of the more pretentious yachis were freighted with the youth and beauty of the "City by the Ses," who received the passing homage of those less fortunate, whose crews were amateur mariners of the sterner sex. The afternoon was bright, clear and beautiful, with just enough wind to send the boats rippling through the waves. Dull care was left behind and the present enjoyment alone considered. As each party was on pleasure bent, there were no trials of skill, but it was noticed that the Ella Anna, the new yacht of Messrs. Marsh, showed a clean pair of heels to all who tried her felt by trials of speed between the different craft in the Charleston squadron.

A FEDERAL MEMORIAL MEETING .- Some fifty or sixty persons met at Military Hall on Saturday night, at half-past cight, to listen to a memorial address which was delivered by Colonel A. J. Willard. The day was appointed by the Grand Army of the Republic, for the pur- se of adorning the graves of Federal soldiers who died during the war, but the secrecy with which the meeting was held doubtless precluded a large number of the Northern residents of the city from being present. General Canby was among the audience, but with a few other exceptions, there were to be seen neither officers nor soldiers. It was also remarkable, considering the character of the occasion, that the address was more political in its character than comm rative of the services of the dead Union soldiers. There were a few platitudes in justification of the American Revolution, but the body of the document was strongly suggestive of a paste pot and pair of scissors let loose among several Tribune editorials, in which Greeley has done his heaviest effervescing It will be seen by our telegraphic dispatches that the day was publicly celebrated else where, and the colored community complain that the unusual secrecy here must have been observed to prevent their attendance among the whites. One Parder, a carpet baggist, is said to have been the direct lever employed to produce this result.

THE SERMON BY THE REV. DR. HICKS .- The nnouncement that Rev. Dr. Hicks would preach last evening in the Citadel Square Church, drew to that edifice one of the largest audiences that has ever assembled for a sacred purpose in the City of Charleston. The house was crowded to the very pulpit steps, hundreds being compelled to stand. And we exaggerate not at all in saying that every person in the vast assemblage was more than gratified with the exhibition of the rare gifts of the eloquent and learned divine.

The text of the sermon was I Peter, chapter I, verses 8 and 9: "Whom, having no: seen, we love; in whom, though now we see him not, yet believing. we rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory."
The subject deduced was first the assured person nol presence of Christ with his people, and the discoveries of faith. The main argument was on the divinity of Christ, and it was handled with a vigor, freshness and ability rare in the teachings of the pulpit. Portions of the sermon were exceedingly afecting; strong men endeavored in vain to control the emotions excited; and although the delivery occupied an hour and a half, the interest which attached to the services from beginning to end was almost painful in its intensity. Dr. Hicks returns to his charge in Brooklyn on Wednesday, much recuperated by his visit to the "City by the Sea."

IMPORTANT TO BANKBUFTS .- The Bankrupt act of Congress was introduced by Mr. Thomas A. Jenckes, a member from Rhode Island, and approved March 2d, 1867. Section 50, however, expressly the first day of June, An-o Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-seven." Mr. Jenekes was the first who took advantage of its provisions, but it has been extensively patronized since that time by hundreds of voluntary and compulsory bankrupts. The founders of the act saw that it would be necessary to estab lish some limitations, and it is expressly enacted in section 33 "that in all proceedings in bankruptcy commencing after one year from the time this act shall go into operation (viz: June 1st, 1867, no discharge shall be granted to a debtor whose assets do not pay fifty per centum of the claims against his estate, unle s the assent, in writing, of a majority in number and value of his creditors who have p oved their claims is filed in the case at or before the time of the application for the discharge." This provision is equally applicable to cases of voluntary and involuntary or compulsory

Saturday was the last day on which applications could be received from those debtors who simply made a surrender of their asse a without any restriction as to the per centum they could pay, and the clerk of the court was busily employed entering the applications on the journal.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION OF THE LU-THERAN CHURCHES .- The Sunday Schools connected with the German Lutheran |Churches of this ci'y met at Dr. Bachman's Church yesterday afternoon, to conclude the celebration commenced on Friday last. The pews immediately in front of the pulpit were assigned to the children and their teachers; the body of the church and the galleries being occupied by the congregations of the three churches. The exercises were opened with prayer by the venerable Dr. Bachman, and after a German Hymn by the children, an address was delivered by the Rev. J. A. Snyder, of Virginia. The hymn, "God bless the sunday School," was then sung, after which the scholars who had been chosen spoke, each speech being followed by a hymn either in German or English

The following was the programme obse ved: Address in German, by Master Charles Pouls; subject, "Our Father in Heaven."

The Rev. Mr. Muller, pastor of the German Lutheran Church, then gave the closing address, and after a benediction from the Rev. J. I. Muller, of Staunton, Va., the large audience slowly dispersed. The music was conducted by Professor A. J. Hotman and the singing by Dr. J. L. Honour.

The New Council.

CEREMONIES OF THEIR INSTALLATION -A SMALL CROWD AND A BIG SWEAR-AN EX-CONFEDE-RATE CAPTAIN ADMINISTERS THE OATH.

The City Hall on Saturday was the scene of a curious spectacle. As already announced, that day had been appointed by the military authorities for the transfer of the City Government from the hands of the representatives of the people to the representatives of the sword and gun. The event called together the large number of fifteen or eighteen perons to witness the ceremony. Why the community remained away-why our people did not rush forward to do henor to the new appointees-why curiosity did not impel a crowd to be present and hang their hats upon a memory that will forever stand out in our local history-we will not undertake to say. Suffice it that they were not there. It was not wonderful, however, that the occusion did attract a very considerable number of the bright and shining lights of Radicalism, and amid even the hallelujahs of the late convention, they did not look more blissful and contented.

The ceremonies in themselves were very brief. After loafing for half an hour in the lobby of the hall, the councilmen elect were told to enter the office of the Clerk of the Board. Here two United States officers in civilians dress presided as master of ceremonies, the presence of Captain Kanapaux, city magistrate, being required for the administration of the test outh to the new officers. It seemed like a dispensation of Providence that a gallant commander of Confederate battery, who cannot I imself swallow mettle. The yachting season is now at hand, and the "iron-clad," should be called upon to administer the lovers of sport should revive the interest once it to the people who are henceforth to control the affairs of Charleston.

The several appointed responded to their names when called, and, on taking the oath, signed the same and retired. Mr. Bernard O'Neill was the only one of the elect who declined, and he did so on the ground that he could not swallow the extraordinary eclaration aforesaid. Mr. S. G. Trott, our esteemed postmaster, did not respond, and Cain, the irrepressible, was not able to be present from the fact that he is understood to be engaged in aiding the work of preparing naw articles of impeachment against the President.

This labor finished, the councilmen went to the hamber, where Colonel Cogswell filled the Mayor's chair. Without any comment, he proceeded directly to business, told his new associates to hold up heir hands, and then made them, in a batch, swear to the following oath:

You solemnly swear that you are qualified to take the position of alderman of the respective wards to which you have been appointed, and that you will well and truly perform the duties of said office to the best of your ability, and that you will support the Constitution of the State and the United states. The Mayor descended from his rostrum, the nev Council broke in a gentle spray, Pillsbury growled pax vobiscum, and rubbed his hands victoriously, and several went across the street to "see a man. The child is born, and on Tuesday next the first meeting of the reconstructionists will be held.

It is consoling to know that Rev. E. P. Adams, the most colored member of the Council, in answer to an inquiry from a stranger as to what they would probably do, repl'ed that "he didn't think they would do any particular harm."

It is understood that one of the earliest moves upon the chessboard will be the appointment of a colored clerk to keep the records of the Council and city, in the place of the present efficient incumbent, W. H. Smith, Esq.

THE GERMANS AND THE SOUTH .- Perhaps the most encouraging sign for our future is to be found in the fact that the Germans seem at last thoroughly aroused to the advantages presented by the South to the thrif y and industrious immigrant. We see it stated that Reuben Golding, Esq., of Stokes County, North Carolina, has sold his forge, situated on Dan River, with about one thousand two hundred acres of land attached, to a company of German capialis's, who intend bringing a colony of Germans to that county. It is the intention of the company to go largely into the manufacturing business. In Hamburg they have formed a stock company, with a capital of $350,000, for starting a German colony in Florida. It is expected that twenty thousand North formans can be directed thither in the course of two years, which would make the speculation an exceedingly successful one. The Germans in Texas are over sixty thousand in number, and it is estimated that at least three-fourths of them are engaged in agricultural pursuits. Careful and intelligent observe:s believe that at least one-third of the whole cotton crop of Texas is now planted and secured by

CHARLESTON, S. C., February 26, 1868 CHARLESTON, S. C., February 26, 1868

Mr. R. WHITE—

Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to inform you that the metallic CASE furnished by you for the removal of the remains of the body of Major McCearry, U.S. A., proved in every re-pect suitable. The careful manner in which you enclosed them was evinced by the perfect condition in which they arrived at his home in Ohio. This was, of course, peculiarly gratifying to his triends. Your charges were also very reasonable.

Very respectfully, yours,

JAMES P. ROY,

Major 6th Infantry. R. WHITE'S residence, 43 Wenthworth-street.

Top Dressing! Top Dressing!

MAPES' NITROGENIZED SUPER-PHOS-PHATE OF LIME.

COTION, CORN, WHEAT AND GENERAL CROPS,

A S A TOP DRESSING TO A GROWING CROP
THIS FERTILIZER cannot be excelled. It may be used before or after the planting of the crop;
for even when applied as a top dressing, it cannot be lost by evaporation, as none of its constituents are volatile. It may be applied at each hocing of cotton, and in the hills during the cultivation of corn and other crop. When crops have been previously manured in the usual way, and found to be of slugrich growth, it may be augmented by the use of this gish growth, it may be augmented by the use of this Fertilizer. This Fertilizer has been successfully used through-out the Southern States during the past fifteen years.

For full analyses of MAPEs' NITROGENIZED SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME, letters from prominent Plante: a throughout the State of South Carolina, and analyses of crops, see descriptive pamphlets, which will be furnished free of charge; and all orders filled by H.
